SUMMARY

I am a novice software developer, currently sharpening my skills in creating Frontend web applications using ReactJS and NextJS. My future goals are centered around expanding my knowledge to encompass Backend development and becoming good in Typescript.

SKILLS

Languages:- Java, Javascript

WebDev:- HTML5, CSS3, TailwindCSS, ReactJS, Redux, NextJS, NodeJS

Database:- Mysql, MongoDB

PROJECTS

Github RepoFinder (ReactJS, TailwindCSS, DaisyUI)

Link to Demo

- I have developed a project called "GitHub RepoFinder," which allows users to discover GitHub repositories associated with specific users.
- During this project, I gained experience in fetching data from third-party APIs, employed Axios in a React environment, and employed styling techniques using TailwindCSS and DaisyUI.

FeedBack UI (ReactJS, TailwindCSS)

- I have developed a project called "Feedback-UI" to collect user feedback along with corresponding ratings.
- The project utilizes fundamental React.js hooks for user input, employs CSS for styling and incorporates various functions to accurately capture and manage the review ratings.

WORK EXPERIENCE

ReactJS Intern

June 2022 - July 2022

- During my internship in ReactJS, I worked as an intern in the role of a frontend developer, where my main responsibilities centered around fundamental design and the creation of components
- I achieved this using tools like Figma, HTML, and CSS. Working closely with a team, I contributed to the creation of responsive user interfaces

Fullstack Intern

Feb 2023 - June 2023

- During my internship as a Full Stack Developer, I acquired practical knowledge in both front-end and back-end web development.
- I worked with a range of technologies, including HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React, and NodeJS. In collaboration with UI/UX teams, I was responsible for crafting user-friendly interfaces with responsive design implementations.
